

Singa Bromfield

Image not found or type unknown

Biography

Book Now

Image not found or type unknown

Discography In 2010 – Singa released his first public album on iTunes, Late Night Jam. In 2011 (Jan) – Singa collaborated with SMA in the official Stax remix recording of the song “Theme from Shaft” for the nationally televised Trumpet Awards. The song was originally written by Issac Hayes. (Jun) – Singa opened up and co-hosted the “ Yo Gotti & Lisa Raye – All White Affair” held at the Peabody hotel downtown Memphis. (Jul) – Singa performed a live performance of the “Theme from Shaft” remix on the Trumpet Awards, televised on the TV One Network. In 2012 (May) – Singa released his second public album, Late Night Jam Session Stories. (Dec) – Singa performed at the Orpheum Theater in Memphis with Diggy Simmons & Yo Gotti. In 2013 (May) – Performed at Memphis in May’s Beale Street Music festival on the FedEx Stage with Don Trip (Nov) – Released his Third public Album, 11-12-13. In 2014: Singa became involved with the Martin Shore documentary Take Me to the River, and began traveling for screenings and after-concerts with his band at the time, The Bromfield Trio, (Feb) – Performing with rapper AL Kapone at the Bonnaroo Music and Arts Festival. (Sep) – The Bromfield Trio performed at Piccadilly Circuit’s famous 100 Club in London UK In 2015 (Feb) – The Bromfield Trio performed at the Harlem’s World Famous Apollo Theater in New York City. (Feb) – The Bromfield Trio performed at the Helemaal Melkweg in Amsterdam. Other highlights include: (Jun) – Don Trip’s God Speed album features Singa B on three singles; LP was ranked #5 on US Top Hip-Hop Album Charts. (Jun) – Singa finished his third International tour performing throughout the Caribbean Islands along up to Canada and Alaska

Image not found or type unknown

Independent

<https://facebook.com/pages/Singa-Bromfield/97110872452>

<http://twitter.com/singaromfield>

<http://instagram.com/singaromfield>